Subject: Saturday and Sunday:

Motobu´s 2-person drills, his anti-gripping drills, and the Bunkai of his favourite Kata. Naihanchi / Tekki Shodan.

This weekend Iain will cover the combative principles of Choki Motobu including his two-person drills, his anti-gripping drills, and the bunkai of his favorite kata; Naihanchi / Tekki Shodan. Motobu was acknowledged as one of the most practical karateka of his time and his combative principles are firmly based on the concepts we find throughout the traditional kata. This seminar will not only help karateka to better understand the principles that lie at the heart of karate, it will also be a great opportunity for all self-defense interested Martial Artists – regardless of core style – to expand their practical knowledge base.

The number of participants is limited. It is recommended to register until 16th of March 2025. Participation is possible from 16 years on or older.

Iain Abernethy, Cumbria, Great Britain.

One of the UK's leading exponents of applied karate.

He has written a number of critically acclaimed books on the practical application of traditional martial arts and is well known for his work on the pragmatic use of the techniques and concepts recorded in the traditional kata.

Iain's seminars, books, DVDs and articles have proved to be very popular with those groups and individuals who wish to practise their arts as the pragmatic systems they were originally intended to be.
